

Character Sheet: Lena Hartmann

Image not available.

Case

Location:

Kiel's annual coastal gala hosted by the local maritime union, where political figures gather to discuss of fshore energy deals

Victim Name:

Elias Voss

Controversial Theme:

data leak exposing municipal corruption during his tenure

Summary:

Elias Voss was found dead at the head of the dinner table, his chair overturned, a glass of pannfisch m mustard sauce spilled beside him. The dinner menu - shrimp salad, pannfisch, and red berry pudding - w as served by the same waitstaff who had recently leaked his private emails. Guests claimed they were unaware of his death, but the timing coincides with the dinner's announcement of a new offshore projec t.

Timeline:

The murder occurred during the dessert course, around 8:45 PM, as guests were laughing over the 'sweet' ending of the evening's political debate. No one noticed the victim's body until the waiter returned w ith the final course, and the room fell silent as the lights dimmed.

Victim Description:

42, former mayor, now exiled activist, known for transparency reforms

Character Details

Name:

Lena Hartmann

Appearance:

Elegant gown, poised demeanor, always smiling at the gala.

Occupation:

Maritime union president

Relation To Victim:

Close ally, co-hosted the event

Personality Traits:

- charismatic - calculating

Background:

Known for pushing offshore energy deals; attended the gala to bolster union support.

Secret:

Falsely claimed to be unaware of the leak; secretly leaked emails to frame Elias.

Hint About Other:

target: Victimhint: Always served dessert first; the timing of the murder matches her agenda.

Source References:

- doc1 - doc2

Murderer Label:

Yes