

Character Sheet: Alicia Schmidt

Case

Location:

Kiel, a small coastal town famous for its naval history and boat-building traditions

Victim Name:

Erik von Hagen

Summary:

During the annual Kiel Week celebration, Erik von Hagen was found dead during dinner aboard his yacht. The Red Berry Pudding served at the meal is believed to have contained a toxic substance, linking the murder to corruption in the maritime industry where he had long-standing conflicts.

Timeline:

The crime took place around midnight on the evening of August 12th, as guests were finishing their dessert during the Kiel Week celebration dinner.

Victim Description:

42, marine engineer, known for his controversial views on shipbuilding standards

Character Details

Name:

Alicia Schmidt

Appearance:

A petite woman with sharp features, dressed in a smart blouse and skirt.

Occupation:

Maritime lawyer

Relation To Victim:

Colleague

Personality Traits:

- intelligent - ambitious

Background:

Erik's colleague and friend, she had been investigating the corruption allegations that Erik had uncovered. [doc1]

Murderer Label:

No

Image Path:

image_tool/image_output\Alicia _Schmidt.png