

Character Sheet: Julia Richter

Case

Location:

Kiel, a small coastal town famous for its naval history and boat-building traditions

Victim Name:

Erik von Hagen

Summary:

During the annual Kiel Week celebration, Erik von Hagen was found dead during dinner aboard his yacht. The Red Berry Pudding served at the meal is believed to have contained a toxic substance, linking the murder to corruption in the maritime industry where he had long-standing conflicts.

Timeline:

The crime took place around midnight on the evening of August 12th, as guests were finishing their dessert during the Kiel Week celebration dinner.

Victim Description:

42, marine engineer, known for his controversial views on shipbuilding standards

Character Details

Name:

Julia Richter

Appearance:

A slender woman with auburn hair, dressed in a smart professional suit.

Occupation:

Investigative journalist

Relation To Victim:

Contact

Personality Traits:

- inquisitive - tenacious

Background:

Julia Richter had been working on a story about corruption in the maritime industry and was close to Erik von Hagen. [doc1]

Murderer Label:

Yes

Image Path:

image_tool/image_output\Julia_Richter.png