Case

Location:

The Kiel Botanical Garden's annual gala dinner hosted by the city's botanical society, set in a grand dining room overlooking the garden's rose beds

Victim Name:

Elara Voss

Summary:

Elara Voss was found dead at the table, her chair overturned and a single red berry pudding spoon still in her hand. Guests claimed she was arguing over floral rights, but the dessert's sugar-coated berries matched her protest posters. Her death coincided with the unveiling of a new botanical exhibit she had publicly denounced.

Timeline:

The murder occurred during the dessert course, around 8:45 PM, as guests were discussing the exhibit's controversial use of native plants. Elara was last seen arguing with the curator, who was later found missing from the event.

Victim Description:

42, freelance floral designer and activist, known for her radical garden installations in Kiel's public spaces
