

Character Sheet: Mira Volk

Image not available.

Case

Location:

Kiel's annual coastal gala hosted by the local maritime union, where political figures gather to discuss offshore energy deals

Victim Name:

Elias Voss

Controversial Theme:

data leak exposing municipal corruption during his tenure

Summary:

Elias Voss was found dead at the head of the dinner table, his chair overturned, a glass of pannfisch mustard sauce spilled beside him. The dinner menu - shrimp salad, pannfisch, and red berry pudding - was served by the same waitstaff who had recently leaked his private emails. Guests claimed they were unaware of his death, but the timing coincides with the dinner's announcement of a new offshore project.

Timeline:

The murder occurred during the dessert course, around 8:45 PM, as guests were laughing over the 'sweet' ending of the evening's political debate. No one noticed the victim's body until the waiter returned with the final course, and the room fell silent as the lights dimmed.

Victim Description:

42, former mayor, now exiled activist, known for transparency reforms

Character Details

Name:

Mira Volk

Appearance:

Stylish, always laughing, never misses a joke.

Occupation:

Political strategist

Relation To Victim:

Opponent, now working for the new project

Personality Traits:

- charismatic - sly

Background:

Used to work with Elias; now seeks revenge for the data leak.

Secret:

Knew the menu was a trap; staged the murder to frame Elias.

Hint About Other:

target: Victimhint: Always served dessert first; no one noticed the victim's body.

Source References:

- doc1 - doc2

Murderer Label:

No